Saint John

Gateway to the famous Bay of Fundy, the historic seaport of Saint John, New Brunswick, is bustling with activity. Surrounded by many natural wonders, the vibrant city of Saint John is alive with history and culture. Pick up a unique, local memento at the Saint John City Market – the oldest continuing public market in North America. Watch the phenomena of the reversing rapids, visit the New Brunswick Museum or take a few hours and explore the St. Martins sea caves. A world of eco-adventures is just begging to be discovered in our region. Don't leave without an epic visit to the AREA 506 Waterfront Container Village, directly adjacent to the cruise terminal! Saint John, or as the locals call it, Saint Awesome!

HIGHLIGHTS
