

AWARD

In 2013, the Port of Trois-Rivières was recognized as the port with the Most Improved Port Facilities by the prestigious Cruise Insight Magazine.

Trois-Rivières

Originally a fur trading hub, Trois-Rivières is the second oldest French-speaking city in North America, with a host of sights and activities easily accessible by foot. A stone's throw from the harbour, the town centre hosts numerous festivities and has a beautiful historic district loved by locals and visitors alike. Known as the capital of poetry, discover the old city while reading excerpts from 400 Québec and international love poems displayed on the city's walls. With stylish boutiques, friendly cafes and bars, and a variety of museums and heritage sites, there's always something new to discover. Living alongside the bustling urban landscape is an abundance of nature and ecotourism activities, including Lac Saint-Pierre, a UNESCO-appointed Biosphere Reserve. Stop by for a warm welcome in the unique and charming city of Trois-Rivières.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS

Inauguration of a marine terminal at the Trois-Rivières Harbourfront Park in 2016.

Opening of the Cogeco Amphitheatre in 2015, with covered seating for 3500 and a grassy area that accommodates 5500.

INNOVATION ET DÉVELOPPEMENT ÉCONOMIQUE TROIS-RIVIÈRES

370 des Forges Street, Suite 100
Trois-Rivières, QC G9A 2H1
CANADA
info@tourismetroisrivieres.com
800 313-1123 (Toll free)
819 375-1122
tourismetroisrivieres.com/en

Business contact:

Marie-Pier Simeone
Supervisor, tourist information office and maritime terminal
mpsimeone@idetr.com
819 374-4061, ext. 5157

Trois-Rivières Port Authority:
capitainerie@porttr.com

HIGHLIGHTS

- One berth available for cruise ships.
- New cruise terminal offering all the necessary services and amenities to welcome passengers.
- Terminal located within walking distance of the historic district.
- Second oldest French-speaking city in North America (founded in 1634).
- Gateway to the Lac Saint-Pierre Biosphere Reserve, a recognized member of UNESCO's prestigious world network of biospheres.
- Host to more than 20 national and international events every year.
- First big city in Québec to be named Cultural Capital of Canada by Canadian Heritage in 2009.
- Bustling downtown centre with shopping, nightlife, restaurants, cafes, microbreweries and more, all within walking distance of the port.
- City hosts Cirque du Soleil and its exclusive new show every year at the Cogeco Amphitheatre.
- Unique cultural and historic attractions including the Borealis Centre (history of pulp and paper industry), the Old Prison, the Québec Museum of Folk Culture, La Mauricie National Park, Cité de l'énergie and several religious sites.
- Designated capital of poetry, with excerpts from 400 poems hanging on the city centre walls and a famous poetry festival held every year in fall.

PORT SERVICES AND AMENITIES

Section 3

Length: 218 m
Depth: 9.1 m
Apron: 15 m

Section 4

Length: 117 m
Depth: 7 m
Apron: 15 m

Section 10

Length: 251 m
Depth: 10.7 m
Apron: 45 m

Aircraft

Downstream: between 48 m and 50 m
Upstream: 54.8 m

Tidal movement

Minor

Pilots

Obligatory

Marine references

Chart #1313
Canadian Hydrographic Service
Latitude: 46° 21' N; Longitude: 72° 33' W

- Cruise terminal with direct access to the port
- Tourist information kiosk
- Gourmet shop selling local products
- Free Wi-Fi

